COSTA RICA

Hog Island Teen Camp - Selva Verde & Arenal
July 30 - August 4, 2018

For young birders ages 15-18

Join us as we travel on an intensive 6-day, 5-night program to Costa Rica to experience the amazing birds this small but diverse country has to offer! With 910 species of birds and 5% of the world's biodiversity, Costa Rica is a mecca for birdwatchers. The enthusiastic young birders on this trip will work alongside some of the country's best-known birders and ornithologists on field identification, bird ecology and conservation. A balance of rich educational content and adventure activities make this an unforgettable overseas expedition for our Hog Island family!

ABOUT SELVA VERDE LODGE

Selva Verde is more than a lodge and more than a rainforest reserve. It is your gateway into a magical world of towering Almendro trees, mantled howler monkeys, and Keel-billed Toucans. Immerse yourself in tropical nature as you hike through deep green forest or reflect quietly in a comfortable hammock. For over 30 years, Selva Verde has been a haven for nature enthusiasts from around the world. This rich rainforest region hosts more than 330 species of birds and is home to amazing birds such as the Sunbittern, Black-crowned Antpitta, Snowy Cotinga, Gartered and Slaty-tailed Trogons, Green Ibis, Red-throated Ant-Tanager, Song Wren, Buff-rumped Warbler, Ornate Hawk-Eagle, and three species of toucans.

EVA MATTHEWS, HOG ISLAND INSTRUCTOR

Eva Matthews has a 14-year career of teaching environmental education and a particular interest in volunteer management. She has led birding trips, mostly in South Florida, for over eight years and enjoys giving community presentations on natural history. She has an MS degree in Recreation & Parks Management from Frostburg State University and a BS degree in Environmental Science from Lander University.
