

Creating Bird-Friendly Habitats --- SAMPLE SCHEDULE

	Sunday August 18	Monday August 19	Tuesday August 20	Wednesday August 21
6:00 am		Early AM Walk
7:00 am		Breakfast in Dining Hall	Breakfast in Dining Hall	Breakfast in Dining Hall
8:00-9:00 am		Creating Living Landscapes- Doug Tallamy	Land owners making a difference- site visit to a bird friendly forest and home garden- Perkins, Brand and Kress	Best practices for bird feeders, bird houses, water features and safety tips for creating bird friendly backyards- Steve Kress
9:30-10:00 break
10:00-11:30 am workshops		<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Better bird houses, feeders and water features Steve Kress Butterflies, Caterpillars and the Plants That Feed Them Andy Brand 	Field trips continued	Hog Island hike
Lunch 12pm	Camper arrival 2:00-4:00	Lunch at Hog Island	Packed Lunch For DRA	Lunch at Hog Island
1:00-2:00 workshops		<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Bird-friendly forestry practices for wooded areas both large and small Deb Perkins Native Plants that Support Insects and Birds Field trip Andy Brand 	Birding and hiking at Damariscotta River Association- meadow management for birds	Optional field trip: Coastal Maine Botanical Gardens with Andy Brand

Creating Bird-Friendly Habitats --- SAMPLE SCHEDULE

	Sunday August 18	Monday August 19	Tuesday August 20	Wednesday August 21
Break 2:00-2:30
2:30-3:30 workshops		1. Native bees and how you can help them Deb Perkins 2. Homeland Diversity: inviting nature back to our yards with native plants. Andy Brand	DRA continued
Workshops 3:30 to 4:30		Building a Better Butterfly Garden Doug Tallamy
Dinner 6pm
CF CQEvening Program 7:30pm	Evening Program: Hog Island History- Steve Kress and Restoring Nature's Relationships Doug Tallamy	Evening Program: Building Pollinator Populations at home- followed by Night Insects of Hog Island Doug Tallamy –	Evening Program: Attracting birds to properties large and small- Steve Kress	